CONSTANCE
Le PRINCE MAURICE
MAURITIUS

The essence of sheer luxury.

Constance Le Prince Maurice

Mauritius was named after Prince Maurice Van Nassau, Stadhouders (Governor) of Holland, the pioneer of the spice trade in the Indian Ocean and to whom our hotel pays tribute. Constance Le Prince Maurice opened its doors in mid-November 1998.

An Outstanding Location

Constance Le Prince Maurice enjoys an idyllic location on the north-east coast of Mauritius. It is 15 minutes from the airport by helicopter and 35 km from the capital Port Louis. Constance Le Prince Maurice is situated on 60 hectares of private land which is completely unspoiled, sheltered from the prevailing winds and ensuring maximum privacy for its guests. Its tropical gardens consist of rare and luxuriant vegetation and the calm turquoise lagoon blends perfectly with the fresh green hinterland and the secluded beaches of brilliant white sand. A natural fish reserve situated in the western part of the hotel adds to the uniqueness and natural beauty of the location.
